

School Fundraising Ideas

There are lots of ways you can around domestic violence and victims of domestic violence. thing is to make it FUN for organising your Light it Orange everyone participating

raise awareness
raise funds to support
The most important
those who are
Orange event and

Mufti Day: Hold an orange mufti day throughout the school. You could have prizes for the wackiest or most orange outfit!

Baking: Organise baking or cooking to be sold at school at lunch time

- Run a Light it Orange Bake Sale with students (& teachers), bake delicious cakes, cupcakes, and biscuits for students to purchase
- Light it Orange School lunch with Food Tech classes baking pizzas, sushi, sausage rolls, etc. to sell at lunch time
- Run a sausage sizzle.

Garage Sale: Turn one student's 'junk' into another student's treasure.

- Ask students and teachers to donate good quality, unwanted goods ie. DVDs, music, books, sports gear, clothing, etc. – create a one day garage sale
- Run a 'mega garage sale' and ask families to donate goods. Promote throughout the community and run your garage sale on a weekend so the public can attend. Include other fundraisers at your garage sale ie. sausage sizzles, baked goods and raffles
- Encourage students & teachers to sell any unwanted things they have on trade me during Light It Orange week or the month of March and donate the money to your fundraiser. You could have prizes for most money raised.

Water Wars: Hold a water balloon competition/battle between school houses, or ask the teachers if they would prepare to be targets. Purchase or ask your local stores to donate 'Bunch o' Balloons' and sell tickets for individual balloons for $1.00 each. On competition day, split into teams or houses, or students vs teachers. It can be a straight out water fight, or include an obstacle course. You will definitely need to bring a change of clothes for this one.

Baby Photo Competition: Can students at your school match your teacher's and/or senior students to their baby photos?

Collect baby photos from teachers and/or senior students, along with current day photos. Mix all the photos up and for $2 your school community can try to match each baby picture to the current picture. Award a cool prize for who correctly matches the most photos.

Are Your
PARENTS SMARTER
Than You Think?

Trivia Night: Organise a quiz or trivia night. Teams of students take on teams of parents & teachers to see who is the smartest.

Hold a Trivia Night in your school hall. Source a 'Quiz Master' from the community, or ask your Principal – you might need to help them with coming up with questions, with a good mix of general knowledge, history from your parent's era, pop culture, plus we can provide you with some questions around the work of Shine to include to raise awareness of the work the event is supporting

For more ideas or support, please contact Carol Herbert carolh@2shine.org.nz